The DCCC Red Alert program highlights the races where contributions will have the most significant and immediate impact right now. This list is updated every other week and includes Frontline Members defending the toughest seats across the country as well as Red to Blue candidates representing the best offensive opportunities to expand our House Majority.

These candidates need urgent resources due to updated polling in the district, an influx of outside money, breaking news in the race, or other recent changes on the ground. They have what it takes to win but are facing tough obstacles and need the additional financial support before voting begins in their state.

ABOUT MIKE
The grandson of Mexican immigrants, Rep. Levin was raised in South Orange County and worked his way to Stanford University. After college, Mike served in the Coro Fellows Program and then attended Duke University School of Law. He then served as Executive Director of the Democratic Party of Orange County and worked as an attorney focused on environmental and energy regulatory compliance and government affairs. Since coming to Congress, Mike has established himself as a leader on climate action and clean energy, serving on the House Natural Resources Committee and the Select Committee on the Climate Crisis. He introduced legislation to transition the nation to zero-emission vehicles, expand renewable energy development, and prevent future offshore oil drilling. Mike also serves on the House Veterans’ Affairs Committee and leads the Subcommittee on Economic Opportunity.

ABOUT THIS DISTRICT
Major Cities: Carlsbad, Oceanside, Vista, Laguna Niguel
Cook Political Report: Toss Up
2020 Presidential: 55.9% Biden, 44.2% Trump

• Redistricting made CA-49 the most competitive frontline race in California, drawing a district in a way that Governor Newsom would have only won with 50.8% of the vote in 2018.
• Because he flipped this seat in 2018, the NRCC put him on their must-defeat list early on this cycle.
• Mike spent $3 million to hold this seat in 2020 and is running against the former Republican nominee who overperformed Trump and is a self-funder.

HOLD THIS DISTRICT
Mike Levin needs to raise at least $5 million to keep CA-49 Blue. He has so far raised $4.7 million and needs another $300,000 to get across the finish line in November.

About Eric

Eric Sorensen grew up in a middle-class family in Illinois and has spent his career keeping people informed — as a scientist, meteorologist, and climate change expert. Eric is committed to addressing the rising costs hitting Americans’ pocketbooks; bringing good-paying union jobs back to Northwest Illinois; and investing in trade schools, apprenticeships, and skills training programs to make sure anyone who’s willing to work has a chance to get ahead. In Congress, he’ll bring that same focus guided by the facts and data — not political gamesmanship and partisan divides — that is sorely needed in Washington.

About This District

Major Cities: Rockford, Moline, Peoria, Bloomington

Cook Political Report: Toss Up

2020 Presidential: 53.9% Biden, 46.1% Trump

• After redistricting, IL-17 improved nearly four percentage points toward Democrats. In 2020, President Biden would have won this district with 54% of the vote.

• Illinois voters rejected the Republican nominee in 2020, and Eric is well positioned to carry on retiring Rep. Cheri Bustos’ legacy.

• Eric’s opponent has already raised more than she did when she ran in 2020.

Hold This District

Eric Sorensen needs to raise at least $2.6 million to keep IL-17 Blue. He has so far raised $2.2 million and needs another $400,000 to get across the finish line in November.

About Tony

Tony Vargas has devoted his career to public service and is now running to flip Nebraska's 2nd District from Red to Blue. Tony is a former public school teacher and member of the Omaha Public School Board, and he has served in the Nebraska Legislature since 2016. He was re-elected in 2020 with more than 75% of the vote, the largest margin of any incumbent lawmaker in the legislature. As a state senator, Tony has developed a reputation for civility and getting things done for Nebraska workers and small businesses. He has successfully passed legislation to strengthen public schools, improve access to health care, encourage technology and innovation, and improve consumer protections.

About this district

Major Cities: Omaha, Ralston, King Lake
Cook Political Report: Toss Up
2020 Presidential: 53.2% Biden, 46.8% Trump

- This district was one of the only congressional districts won by a House Republican that voted for Biden, making this a true swing district.
- On top of 2020 Democratic wins in this district, redistricting made this district slightly more competitive for Democrats.

Flip this district

Tony Vargas needs to raise at least $3.3 million to flip NE-02 from Red to Blue. He has so far raised $3.1 million and needs another $200,000 to get across the finish line in November.

Chris Pappas
NH-01

CHRI S NEEDS YOUR SUPPORT
Contribute here!

BREAKING NEWS:

- The CLF and NRCC are pouring money into this race and will spend over $6 million against Chris.
- Chris raised $1.4 million in Q3 — a record-breaking quarter for NH.
- His Republican opponent is a former Trump White House staffer who supports the overturning of Roe v. Wade, has called climate change “BS,” and believes the 2020 election was stolen.

ABOUT CHRIS

Born and raised in Manchester, Rep. Pappas is a proud product of Manchester public schools. After graduating from Harvard in 2002, he returned to his hometown of Manchester to work at his family's restaurant, the Puritan Backroom. During his two terms as a state representative, two terms as Hillsborough County Treasurer, and a member of the New Hampshire Executive Council, he dedicated his time to delivering opportunities to families in every community. In his first term in Congress, Chris sponsored legislation to support New Hampshire's small businesses, improve access to affordable health care, fought to get veterans the benefits they earned, combat the opioid epidemic, and protect New Hampshire's drinking water. Chris won the seat in 2018 following the retirement of Democrat Carol Shea-Porter and became the first openly gay person to represent New Hampshire in Congress.

ABOUT THIS DISTRICT

Major Cities: Manchester, Portsmouth, Laconia
Cook Political Report: Toss Up
2020 Presidential: 52.2% Biden, 46.2% Trump

- Chris spent $3.1 million in 2020 and the NRCC has put him high on their list to defeat in the midterms.
- The Cook Political Report ranks this race as “Toss Up.”

HOLD THIS DISTRICT

Chris Pappas needs to raise at least $5 million to keep NH-01 Blue. He has so far raised $4.8 million and needs another $150,000 to get across the finish line in November.

Robert Zimmerman is a small business owner and activist running to keep NY-03 blue. From an early activist start in Long Island communities, Robert is a leading voice in advocating for Planned Parenthood, LGBTQ+ rights, healthcare access, gun violence prevention, and tackling the climate crisis. He started a small business in his hometown of Great Neck that has thrived to this day. He was later elected to the Democratic National Committee, nominated by President Clinton to serve on the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts Presidential Commission on the Arts, and nominated by President Obama to serve on the National Council on the Humanities. If he wins, Robert would make history as the first openly gay congressman from Long Island.

Robert Zimmerman needs to raise at least $1.7 million to keep NY-03 Blue. He has so far raised $1.3 million and needs another $450,000 to get across the finish line in November.

PAT NEEDS YOUR SUPPORT

BREAKING NEWS:

- Internal polling shows this race is tightening!
- Republicans have spent over $5 million this cycle to attack Pat.
- Pat outraised his opponent 4:1 in Q3 and ended with nearly double the cash on hand. However, given the expensive media market, he will need to raise an additional $420,000 to remain competitive.

ABOUT PAT

Rep. Ryan is a decorated combat veteran, small businessman, and former Ulster county executive representing New York’s 19th Congressional District. Pat won the district in a competitive August special election to replace the incumbent Democrat, and now must pivot to win the newly-drawn NY-18. Pat served two combat tours in Iraq as an Army intelligence officer. After leaving the military, he founded a small technology company, where he implemented worker-focused policies like paid family leave and created a jobs-training program for veterans without college degrees, equipping them with tech skills to ensure they had high-paying jobs. In 2019, Pat was elected to serve as Ulster county executive, where he spearheaded the efforts to provide direct financial relief to small businesses and residents, build supportive and affordable housing, and re-invest in mental health services, all while never raising taxes.

ABOUT THIS DISTRICT

Major Cities: Kingston, Poughkeepsie, Newburgh, Woodbury

Cook Political Report: Lean Democratic

2020 Presidential: 54.3% Biden, 45.7% Trump

- The newly drawn NY-18 voted for President Biden by nearly five points and The Cook Political Report rates the district “Lean Democratic.”
- After pivoting from a competitive special election, Pat needs to make sure he can continue to communicate in the expensive New York Media Market.

HOLD THIS DISTRICT

Pat Ryan needs to raise at least $3.4 million to keep NY-18 Blue. He has so far raised $3 million and needs another $420,000 to get across the finish line in November.

EMILIA SYKES
OH-13

EMILIA NEEDS YOUR SUPPORT
Contribute here!

BREAKING NEWS:

- CLF just announced an additional $800,000 in spending against Emilia — bringing outside Republican spending to over $7 million.
- Emilia outraised her opponent in Q3, but her opponent had a slight cash on hand advantage.
- Internal polling shows Emilia slightly ahead. It's clear she can win this race with more support!

ABOUT EMILIA

Emilia Sykes is running to keep Ohio’s open 13th District blue. She has been working to level the playing field for the people of Ohio as a state representative since 2014. Emilia made history when she was the first Black female lawmaker under the age of 30 to serve in the Ohio state Legislature. As an Ohio state representative, Emilia worked to expand opportunities for families in northeast Ohio. She’s fought for tax cuts for working families, funding for high-speed internet, higher wages, and safer working conditions. During her first year as Ohio State House Minority Leader, the percentage of bipartisan bills passed was nearly double each of the previous two legislative sessions. Emilia has received numerous awards for her advocacy, including Legislator of the Year from the Ohio Minority Business Enterprise. She’ll bring that same passion and commitment to Washington to stand up for the people she represents.

ABOUT THIS DISTRICT

Major Cities: Akron, Canton, Twinsburg
Cook Political Report: Toss Up
2020 Presidential: 50.4% Biden, 49.6% Trump
- GOP lawmakers redrew OH-13, which has been Democratic for 45 years, but the Ohio State Supreme Court struck down their map. The new seat is vastly different from the previous OH-13.
- The Republican opponent is an anti-choice extremist, frequent Fox News commentator, and a spokesperson, surrogate, and advisor to Trump.

HOLD THIS DISTRICT

Emilia Sykes needs to raise at least $2.5 million to keep OH-13 Blue. She has so far raised $2.3 million and needs another $200,000 to get across the finish line in November.

ABOUT SUSAN

Before running for Congress, Rep. Wild built a well-respected and recognized legal practice and became the first female Solicitor of the city of Allentown, a position in which she shepherded in a new era of accountability and transparency. In 2018, Susan flipped the seat from red to blue, becoming the first woman ever to represent the Lehigh Valley in Congress and the only Jewish federally elected Pennsylvania official. Since coming to Washington, she has become a proven consensus builder and has become a leader in mental health issues and lowering drug costs. She has also worked across the aisle to fund critical, life-sustaining programs like Meals on Wheels and the Children’s Health Insurance Program.

ABOUT THIS DISTRICT

Major Cities: Allentown, Bethlehem, Easton
Cook Political Report: Toss Up
2020 Presidential: 49.7% Biden, 49.1% Trump

• Redistricting moved this district from a Biden +5 to a Biden +0.6.
• In 2020, Rep. Wild spent $4.6 million to hold this seat, narrowly winning re-election by 3.8 points.
• The opponent has been on the campaign trail with the extremist MAGA Republican gubernatorial candidate.

HOLD THIS DISTRICT

Susan Wild needs to raise at least $6.9 million to keep PA-07 Blue. She has so far raised $6.7 million and needs another $200,000 to get across the finish line in November.

MATT CARTWRIGHT

MATT NEEDS YOUR SUPPORT
Contribute here!

BREAKING NEWS:

- The CLF just announced it will spend another $500,000 against Matt between now and Election Day.
- In Q3, Matt raised $1.1 million, outraising his GOP challenger by over $250,000.
- His opponent, who called the overturning of Roe v. Wade an “amazing day,” was just endorsed by a national anti-choice extremist group.

ABOUT MATT

Since taking office in 2013, Rep. Cartwright has introduced more legislation supported by both Democrats and Republicans than any other House Democrat. In 2019, the Center for Effective Lawmaking named him one of the most effective members of the U.S. House for his record of advancing real solutions to the biggest issues our nation faces. In the past few years, Matt has gotten bills signed into law that protect low-income veterans from being scammed out of their hard-earned benefits, prevent government officials from using taxpayer dollars on personal expenses, safeguard the rights of child pornography victims, and assist public schools in becoming more energy efficient. As a Chairman of the Commerce-Justice-Science Appropriations Subcommittee, Matt played a pivotal role in crafting several coronavirus relief measures to continue to help workers, families, and small businesses amid this ongoing public health and economic crisis.

ABOUT THIS DISTRICT

Major Cities: East Stroudsburg, Scranton, Wilkes-Barre
Cook Political Report: Toss Up
2020 Presidential: 48.0% Biden, 50.9% Trump

- Matt spent $4.3 million to hold his seat in 2020, and the NRCC named him to their list for defeat in the midterms early on in the cycle.
- PA-08 remains just as tough to win after redistricting, and Matt will need the resources to remain competitive in a district that voted for Trump by over four points.

HOLD THIS DISTRICT

Matt Cartwright needs to raise at least $5.3 million to keep PA-08 Blue. He has so far raised $5.1 million and needs another $200,000 to get across the finish line in November.

Chris Deluzio, an Iraq War veteran and civil rights attorney, is running to protect our democracy and keep Pennsylvania’s 17th District's seat blue. After graduating from the U.S. Naval Academy, Chris served as an officer in the Navy and deployed overseas multiple times. He received his law degree from Georgetown Law and has been working to protect voting rights and our elections. He supports legislation like the John Lewis Voting Rights Advancement Act and the Freedom to Vote Act. Chris believes we’re all served better by impartial and fair maps, not gerrymandered ones. He won’t shy from a fight with those on the radical right who would attack our freedoms and throw out our elections in exchange for power.

ABOUT THIS DISTRICT

Major Cities: Forest Hills, Allison Park, Crafton

Cook Political Report: Toss Up

2020 Presidential: 52.3% Biden, 46.5% Trump

- Redistricting has made PA-17 more favorable for Democrats and a “Toss Up.”
- Chris will be facing off against a self-funding MAGA wolf pretending to be a moderate sheep who will vote to strip away health care protections, abortion rights, and force the far-right agenda on the constituents of this swing district.

HOLD THIS DISTRICT

Chris Deluzio needs to raise at least $3.3 million to keep PA-17 Blue. He has so far raised $3 million and needs another $300,000 to get across the finish line in November.
